Principles for Social Inclusion

Posted on 14 September 2011

Organisation

Australian Social Inclusion Board

Purpose

The Australian Social Inclusion Board (the Board) was established in May 2008 as the main advisory body to Government on ways to achieve better outcomes for the most disadvantaged in our community.
The Board engages with the community, business, the not-for-profit sector, academics, advisory groups and all levels of government to connect better policy with the knowledge and experience of the research, business and community sectors.

Link

http://www.socialinclusion.gov.au/

Project Goals / Aspirations

Reducing disadvantage
- Making sure people in need benefit from access to good health, education and other services;

Increasing social, civic and economic participation
- Helping everyone get the skills and support they need so they can work and connect with the community, even during hard times

A greater voice, combined with greater responsibility
- Governments and other organisations giving people a say in what services they need and how they work, and people taking responsibility to make the best use of the opportunities available.

How do the Principles for Social Inclusion fit within the MAP2010 framework?

for more information on the MAP2010 frameworks see here

Society

Reducing disadvantage
- Making sure people in need benefit from access to good health, education and other services;

Increasing social, civic and economic participation
- Helping everyone get the skills and support they need so they can work and connect with the community, even during hard times

What is MAP 2.0 all About?

Search

Search this Blog

Recent Entries

The consultation continues...

Our last regular blog post

Blog contributions

Recent Comments

Towards Q2: Tomorrow&

'Things that matter

'Things that matter

Archive

November 2011 (4)

October 2011 (13)

September 2011 (91)

August 2011 (6)

July 2011 (1)

April 2011 (3)

A greater voice, combined with greater responsibility

- Governments and other organisations giving people a say in what services they need and how they work, and people taking responsibility to make the best use of the opportunities available.

-

-

-

Return to Home

Comments

No Comments Found

Subject:

Principles for Social Inclusion

Name:

Email:

Add Comment:

© Australian Bureau of Statistics 2011 All Rights Reserved | Privacy Policy | Disclamer and Terms of Use | Contact Us